

Region

United Kingdom

Area of expertise

Working Parents

---

Hannah Bradshaw

Executive Coach

Having spent 10 years as a City lawyer, Hannah has transitioned into executive coaching and now specialises in Parental Coaching. Hannah has a background in employment law, particularly gender pay issues and sex discrimination.

---

Special Interest

Hannah is a mother of two and has extensive experience in Parental Coaching. She has worked with a wide range of clients, coaching both managers and parents, in order to facilitate a smooth return to work after the maternity transition.

Hannah has a special interest in mental health and in particular, the positive impact of coaching on maternal mental. Hannah is a qualified Mental Health First Aider.

---

Coaching Style

Hannah is a highly skilled Parental Coach who is able to build confidence, facilitate the development of action plans and enable thinking which will help others to identify and realise their goals.

---

Training & Qualification

Hannah is an accredited Executive Coach, a member of the Association for Coaching and a qualified Mental Health First Aider.

---

Current Clients

Specialist sector knowledge of the legal and financial industries. Current clients include DLA Piper, Gowling WLG, KWM Europe, Macfarlanes, Schroders, Milbank Deutsche Bank, Cazenove Capital and Wellington Management International.

---

1st fl. Peek House , 20 Eastcheap, London, EC3M 1EB · Tel: +44 (0)20 7795 6556 · Email: info@executive-coaching.co.uk