

Jessica Rogers

Executive Coach

Jessica started her career in Marketing Communications and developed into Brand Management leading diverse teams and managing large budgets within international media outlets. After starting a family, she trained as a coach as an effective way to use her commercial skills whilst helping to develop conscious leaders and parents in the workplace.

Region

United Kingdom

Area of expertise

Working Parents

Women in the Workplace

Developing Leaders

Coaching Style

She is warm and energetic and puts the clients needs at the forefront, always creating a productive environment for development. She uses her unique combination of coaching skills and tools alongside her empathy, corporate experience and business acumen to help clients to develop their unique leadership style and navigate major career transition to ensure they are well equipped to communicate and execute their career goals.

Coaching Specialism

She is committed to helping individuals proactively manage their own career development; her particular interest is in developing leaders and leadership skills. She is also committed to supporting parents as they navigate the process of balancing career aspirations and family life.

Training & Qualifications

Jessica has an Economics degree and a Chartered Institute of Marketing Diploma. She has trained as a Professional Co-Active Coach and has a professional accreditation from the International Coach Federation.

Clients

Jessica has provided coaching to employees at:

- HSBC
 - Schroders
 - The Telegraph
 - Worldpay
 - Mediacom
 - Wellington Group
 - Total Media
 - London Legacy.
-

1st flr. Peek House , 20 Eastcheap, London, EC3M 1EB · Tel: +44 (0)20 7795 6556 · Email: info@executive-coaching.co.uk